Amend the Act regulating the Salaries of Resident Magistrates in Ireland in certain cases. A D. 1884.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :

- 5 1. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Act of the session of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eight years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-three, it shall be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, to direct that any resident magistrate may be paid an 10 annual salary not exceeding the sum of one thousand pounds ; and the Lord Lieutenant may order that such increased salaries shall be computed from the first day of April before the passing of this Act : Provided that not more than five of such magistrates shall at any one time be entitled to receive by way of salary any sum in 15 excess of what they would have been entitled to receive if this Act had not been passed.

Amendment of Act 37 & 38 Vict. c. 23.

2. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Salaries of Short title.
